Fighting Cancer

Recently, there have been many sentences that start with the words: "In these hard economic times..." or "Because of the economy..." Whether it was as severe as losing a job or as disappointing as not seeing your annual salary increase or as convenient as using this tough economy as an excuse to get out of a wedding or trip you couldn't afford, there is no denying that the state of the world over the past year or so, has affected us all.

Now imagine, in the current economic climate, hearing the words: You have cancer. Because cancer doesn't concern itself with stock portfolios and the national debt. It doesn't check with the unemployment line before it spreads in a person's body. It simply does not stop, no matter the circumstances. So, for our part, we must not stop either. Summer Hope is dedicated to standing on the frontlines in the battle against cancer. And we can't do it without your help.

It is your support that allows The Summer Hope Foundation to donate thousands of dollars annually to the research programs at the American Cancer Society, Memorial Sloan-Kettering and Cold Spring Harbor Labs, among others. It is with your every donation, that we are able to keep The Annie Alahverdian Fund for Mothers with Cancer and The Steven Alvarez Fund for Children with Cancer running, actively helping those touched by cancer. And it is because of your dedication to our cause, that we are able to send out Hope Packages, more this year than ever before, to recently diagnosed cancer patients.

We look forward to seeing you at our 7th Annual Summer Hope Benefit, at The Carlton at Eisenhower Park, one of the premiere locations in New York to host an event. Thank you for helping us continue to provide the moments of hope that are so desperately needed to win the battle against cancer.

Yours In Hope,

Edward B. Mouradian, Jr.

The journal will also be displayed on a continuous loop throughout the entirety of The Summer Hope Benefit.
